

outhern Beltway

A 13-mile, $900 million portion of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission's Southern Beltway (Interstate 576), including 4 miles in South Fayette Township, opened in October 2021.

The highway links with the existing 6-mile Findlay Connector to provide a route between Interstate 79 and Pittsburgh International Airport.

South Fayette Way

- The South Fayette Way interchange is accessible from Route 50 near the Gladden neighborhood in South Fayette Township.
- There is no toll on the beltway, in either direction, between South Fayette Way and I-79.
- Drivers pass through three toll points between South Fayette Way and the airport.
